

DID YOU KNOW?

During our time at the Nebraska School for the Deaf, we used some sign language that is no longer in use today. I have been asking around to see if there were any signs that we no longer use. I have collected some of them. Enjoy those pictures.

By Treasurer Debra Weyers, Class of 1979

First Row: popcorn, not here yet, coming/here now, time to go

Second Row: pantyhose, veeeee/watch me, cheat, steel body/tough

Last Row: play it along, orange

