

DID YOU KNOW?

As many of you know, the Tiger is the beloved mascot of the Nebraska School for the Deaf.

I'm excited to share a collection of photographs that highlight our Tiger mascot over the years, along with the names of the individuals who proudly wore the costume.

While I wasn't able to find photographs for every year—especially from the earlier decades—I hope you enjoy this opportunity to look back at our school's rich history.

By Treasurer Debra Weyers, Class of 1979

From Our Early Years to the Final Tiger Era

1971- Judy Broders

1974- Betty Grummert

1976- Danette Steven

1977- Laura Deel

1978- Doreen Tibbetts

1979- Ann Thompson

1980- Marina Larson

1983- Susan Trumble

1983- Diane Higgins

1985- Marshall Harshbarger

1986- Jean Wruble

1987- Sonja Miller

1996- Jerrilyn Myers

Let's Go
Tiger!

